HAITI. A generous person shall be enriched; he who refreshes others shall also be refreshed. Proverbs 11:25. O non Papa, Ak Pitit la, Ak Lespri San-an. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. —Good news for Haiti—Their soccer team will be playing in the World Cup—First time ever! Besides our prayers for Haiti and its people, let us cheer for their national soccer team. As the sports commentator stated: "What Haiti has accomplished here is beyond inspirational."

YOUNG AT HEART will meet Friday, December 12, at 10:00 AM in the Gallery. The speaker will be Len Poulin from the Virginia Museum of Natural History updating us on where this project stands now and what the future holds for this exciting opportunity for the City of Waynesboro. A light breakfast will be served and all are invited!

DEAR PARISHIONERS, As we begin a new liturgical year, our cantors will be chanting in English the Entrance and Communion Antiphons found in the Lectionary for each Sunday Mass. The texts of these antiphons can be found in The Saint Joseph Sunday Missal. The Entrance Antiphon will be sung by the cantor at the very beginning of Mass, just before the entrance hymn, and the Communion Antiphon will be sung by the cantor while Father Francis is receiving Holy Communion, just before the first Communion hymn. The use of these antiphons will enhance the sacred character of our liturgies throughout the coming year. Yours in Christ, Justin Soutar, Director of Music

THANK YOU! Your generosity to the homeless that are seeking help through WARM and Valley Mission was overwhelming. Thank you for showing Jesus' love to your neighbor in need.
