The Haverkamps invite you...

LEARNING TO LOVE AND NOT DEMONIZE IN DIVIDED TIMES

This talk, given at a Catholic Charities Conference by Jesuit Fr. Gregory Boyle, and his latest book, "Cherished Belonging", will be the basis for this study. Fr. Boyle is the founder of Homeboy Industries, based in L.A., the largest gang intervention and reentry program in the world. They practice cherishing. We will watch the video together, a little at a time, followed by discussion, and share reading his book. No purchase required.

We will gather in our accessible home on Thursdays 1:00—2:30 PM. Start date is February 19. To sign up and for additional details contact John and Rosie Haverkamp (540) 649-5260 or haverkam@gmail.com.

On behalf of my family and myself, please accept our sincere gratitude for everything you did or said to comfort us during our loss of Paul. So many acts of kindness, food, cards, flowers, Masses, contributions and your presence meant so much more than we can express.

We also thank everyone who came together for us to experience a beautiful Mass of Celebration; Fr. Francis, Justin and the Music ministry, EMOE's, and Altar servers. Our dear Jennifer worked so hard while she was sick, and still made sure everything was perfect. We are grateful to each and all of you. May God bless you abundantly.

—Kathie, Steven, Brent Ward and family

HAITI. Saint Anthony House (SAH) is in Pointe-a-Raquette, a fishing port on LaGonave Island in Haiti. St. Louis King of France parish assists us to provide food to the inhabitants of SAH, a home for elderly who need assistance and have no families. We hire a cook and an assistant to provide a hot meal each day. In addition, monthly food distributions to families consist of staples: rice, beans, oil, and spices. Please pray that Father Augustin continues to be successful in aiding those in need. Thank you for your generous support. Mesi Anpil.
