

Sunday of Divine Mercy (12 April 2026)
Prayers of the Faithful

1. We pray for all Christians throughout the world; for those who work to heal division among God's people; for our pastors, and all who serve God striving to be authentic signs of Christ's presence to one another ... we pray to the Lord.
2. We pray for all who build up the human family; for laborers and employers, students and educators, healthcare workers, the military, first responders, and all whose service goes unnoticed or unappreciated ... we pray to the Lord.
3. We pray for our young people preparing for sacraments; for a renewal of God's Spirit in our lives; and that all may hear God's call to mercy and friendship in fuller measure ... we pray to the Lord.
4. We pray for those who most need God's mercy, those who feel most distant and unworthy, who neglect or ignore God's call stirring in their hearts; and for all believers who bring others to God ... we pray to the Lord.
5. We pray for the homebound, the disabled, those in chronic pain, those in hospice care, and all the sick; we remember especially all caregivers, and their loved ones who worry; we pray also for
Linda Bronski; Matt Covell; Fr. Tom Collins; Carol Mitchell; Lucy Pardee;
Anne Mahoney; Janet Stuart;
... that they experience God's presence and care ... we pray to the Lord.
6. We pray for those whom God has welcomed to new life in the Kingdom; for those taken from us too early, those for whom no one mourns, and those who grieve deeply the loss of a loved one; we pray especially for
Edward Kline; Gerardo Briones De leon;
John Lacy; Deacon Dave Kohut; Cosmas Nwachukwu;
John Fischer;
... that they enter the kingdom God has prepared for them from the foundation of the world ... we pray to the Lord.
