32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (November 8th, 2026)
Prayers of the Faithful

1. For vocations to the priesthood and religious life: may the Lord call more men and women to use their gifts in service to his Church, and may those he calls respond with faith and zeal for the Gospel, we pray to the Lord.

2. For those recently elected to office: may they serve the common good of our entire nation, and that they may be leaders in effort to reconcile divisions and bring people together as a united country, we pray to the Lord.

3. For our veterans who have given their lives for our country: may we honor their sacrifices by continuing to stand up for freedom and justice in the world, we pray to the Lord.

4. For those suffering physical or mental illness: May God grant them healing and protection in the shadow of his wings, we pray to the Lord.

5. For the sick of our community, the injured or recently bereaved that they will know the healing touch of Christ in their lives. As we pray for…

Edward Kuderski, Tricia Ryan, Jenna Keenan, Ida Levin, Pete Pekala, Anthony Valente, Megan Krogh, Maria Morales, Tommy Lipscomb, John Marvec, John and Brandi Gebhardt and Dina Caddeo.

… that with the assistance of loved ones and healthcare professionals, they may know God's care for them … we pray to the Lord.

6. For those who have died, members of our parish family, and those we miss dearly; for those who die alone or away from home; and for those whom no one remembers; we pray especially for:

Thomas Little, Mona and William White.

… that their memory lives on in their example of virtue and faith, and they know rejoicing at the eternal wedding feast … we pray to the Lord.
