- Weekly Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) classes will start Tuesday, September 1, 2026, at 7:00 PM.

Haiti Ministry: The Haiti Ministry team and interested parishioners recently had a real-time conversation with Fr. Augustin in Pointe-a-Raquette Haiti. He reports that costs have risen for monthly food distributions. Our continued efforts to feed the hungry; shelter the homeless; and follow the thoughts of Pope Leo's newest encyclical are only possible with your assistance. We have worked for over a decade and can proudly note that over 70 people are fed regularly; up to ten are housed at St. Anthony House which was built by Haitians with our financial support; and special needs have been met over the years. Since 2013, St. John the Evangelist parishioners have made life more possible in one of the poorest countries of the world. Thank you for your participation. Mesi Anpil.

HELP NEEDED!

A challenge of providing 75,000 world mission rosaries needed for the beautification of Bishop Fulton Sheen has been sent out to all rosary makers. This rosary was designed by bishop Sheen 75 years ago and designated for world peace. The rosary will be given at no cost to all attending the first mass of his beautification on September 24, 2026. The rosary makers of St. John are planning to donate 250 rosaries by the end of August, we need your help to meet this challenge. If you would like to help in this historic project and learn how to make rosaries, we will be meeting every Monday 10 AM to 12 noon until the end of August. First meeting will be July 6th. No experience is necessary. We will teach you and provide all materials. For more information, please contact Judy Charles - heuserja52@gmail.com or by phone at 540-817-0356.

Hi there! I am the new church secretary. I am very excited to be here and be a resource to help this lovely community! In my spare time I thoroughly enjoy spending time out in nature and hanging out with my cat! Thank you all for being kind and welcoming as I settle into my new role!
