Divine Mercy Information:

The Divine Mercy Cenacle group is facilitated by Paul Perkins and meets each Tuesday at 10AM in the Gallery room. Here we learn the message and devotion of Divine Mercy as dictated by Jesus Christ himself to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska between the years of 1931 and 1938. This message is recorded in her Diary from which we study small portions each week. We then associate her Diary message with scripture verses and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

We support the parish by supplying information on the Divine Mercy Image, the Chaplet, the Novena and The Hour of Great Mercy. We also assist Fr. Francis in the preparation for the feast of Divine Mercy on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Pope Saint John Paul II has called the Divine Mercy devotion, "God's gift to the Church." If you would like to enrich your spiritual life, please consider joining our group.

This fall, Virginians will vote on the Virginia Right to Reproductive Freedom Amendment. If this extreme amendment passes, it will enshrine virtually unlimited and unregulated abortion – at any time during pregnancy – in the state constitution. This amendment is intentionally vague in its wording and creates loopholes that put women and children at risk. Constitutional amendments are extremely difficult to repeal, and courts must interpret the law as written – including its loopholes.

This grave moral choice requires knowing the facts about current Virginia law and what the amendment would change, and then making an informed decision to defend the sisters, daughters, friends, and especially the vulnerable in our communities.

Women and children deserve safety. This amendment puts them at risk.

Women deserve protection. This amendment reduces protections for women and increases protections for predators.

Women deserve safe medical care. This amendment removes safeguards and deregulates medical protections.

Babies deserve protection. This amendment allows for abortion until birth and would leave the baby to die after an attempted abortion.

Parents deserve rights. This amendment circumvents a parent's right to make healthcare decisions for their children and allows minors to get an abortion without parental consent.

We strive to Proclaim the Gospel & to Love One Another ... RIGHT HERE ... RIGHT NOW.
